Chestnut Filly

Sire: Schiaparelli (GER)

Dam: Miniature Rose (GB) (Anshan (GB))

It is not often that we buy chestnut fillies but this one really appealed to us, she is a good moving athletic daughter of Schiaparelli.

A half sister to Twelve Roses, a horse we trained a few years ago who was a very decent animal, this filly only has to achieve half of what he did to be a very classy brood mare prospect when she retires from racing; she certainly looks forward enough to run in bumpers this season.
